From Tuesday June 2. to Saturday June 6. 1719.

Whitehall, June 5.

AN humble Addreſs to His Majeſty from the High Sheriff, Governour, Deputy-Governours, Juſtices of the Peace, the Proteſtant Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Cavan, and the Corporations of Cavan and Bellturbett, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Craggs, has been laid before their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices.

Berne, May 31. The Sovereign Council here continues its Deliberations upon encouraging all Sorts of Manufactures in this Country, and upon hindering the further Exportation of Money, which is very ſcarce; for which End they came to a Reſolution ſome Days ago to oblige every Body that is any ways employed by this State, to wear no other Apparel but what ſhall be actually manufactured in this Canton. The Commiſſioners which went lately on the Part of this State to Lauſane to viſit that Academy, are expected back here to Day: It is ſaid that things have paſſed there with great Quietneſs and Moderation. The Republick of Geneva has written a Letter to this State, to acquaint them with the Step they had lately taken at the Requiſition of His Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter there, in cauſing the late Lord Mar with his Papers to be ſeized. Letters from that Place adviſe, that an Apartment had been fitted up at the Town houſe for the ſaid Lord Mar, whither he had been removed from his Inn, to be more ſecurely kept till his Majeſty's Pleaſure be known.

Paris, June 10. The Parliament of Bourdeaux have publiſhed an Arrêt, cenſuring the Declaration in the King of Spain's Name lately diſperſed, and forbidding the vending or uttering the ſame on the Penalty to all Offenders of being treated as guilty of High Treaſon. On the 8th Inſtant, the King of Great Britain's Birth-day, the Earl of Stair his Ambaſſadour at this Court, gave a very magnificent Entertainment, to ſeveral Dukes, Marſhals of France, foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Quality and Diſtinction. Letters from the Army commanded by the Marſhal Berwick adviſe, that the Siege of Fontarabia is carried on ſucceſsfully with all Diligence.

Dublin, May 29. Yeſterday being His Majeſty's Birth-day, the Nobility and Gentry attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in the Preſence-Chamber of the Caſtle, where was alſo a great Appearance of Ladies; there was a Song in Honour of the Day, accompanied with a Conſort of Muſick of the beſt Performers in the Kingdom, which was ended by a Flouriſh of the State Trumpets, and, on a Signal given, there was a triple Diſcharge of the Ordnance; after which his Grace, in his State-Coach, attended by a Body of Horſe, made a Tour on the Strand; the Stewards for the Feaſt, with the Nobility and Gentry, waited on him in their Coaches. From thence they repaired to the Tholſel to Dinner, where was a ſplendid Entertainment provided by the Stewards: Dinner being ended his Grace went to the Play, where there was a very great Appearance; the Play being over, his Grace with the Ladies and the reſt of the Company went to the Fire-works, which with Bonfires, Illuminations, and Ringing of Bells, concluded the Day's Solemnity. His Grace deſigned a Ball at the Caſtle, but conſidering it would be too great a Fatigue to the Ladies after the Fire-works, it is appointed to be to Night.

Edinburgh, May 30. Letters of the 25th Inſtant from Inverneſs, give us Reaſon to conclude that Major-General Wightman, who arrived at that Place the Day before, marched againſt the Rebels on Tueſday or Wedneſday laſt. It is believed here the King's Forces will not find any Body of the Rebels together, except the Spaniards in order to ſurrender. It is adviſed, that there are no Men of any Note with them, except ſuch as are attainted. As there are divers Perſons in this Town, Enemies to His Majeſty's Government, who have endeavoured to perſwade others, that there were no Priſoners taken in Donan-Caſtle, it was thought proper that thoſe brought by the Flamborough Frigate into Leith-Road, ſhould be landed, which was done on the 28th, and they marched through the Town into the Caſtle. By Letters of the 19th from Captain Holland Commander of His Majeſty's Ship the Aſſiſtance, we learn, that the Blow the Rebels received lately in Caſtle Donan had obliged them to ſhift their Quarters, and march to the Head of Lough Carran near Lough Kiſſern, where the Dartmouth and Aſſiſtance are at Anchor; and that there often happen ſmall Encounters betwixt their Parties, and the Ships Boats, which are imployed to obſerve their Motions, and deſtroy all Imbarkations of any kind whatever. Theſe Letters add that there is a Difference between the late Marqueſs of Tullibardine, and Seaforth, and Mariſchal, upon the Point of Command, whereupon Tullibardine was removed with the Spaniards to a Place three Miles diſtant from the others; a Deſerter from the Spaniards had aſſured, that they would ſurrender upon the firſt Summons from a Body of regular Troops.

The Commiſſioners for licenſing Hawkers, Pedlars and petty Chapmen, do hereby give Notice, that after Saturday the 13th of this Inſtant June, daily Attendance will be given at their Office near Little Turn-Stile in Holbourn (Sundays and Holidays excepted) for the granting of Licences: And that all Perſons indebted for the latter Moiety of the Duty on Licences formerly granted, on Failure of immediate Payment, will be proſecuted at Law for the ſame.

Whereas the Court of Directors of the Governour and Company of the Bank of England, did on the 21ſt of March laſt give Notice, That they would allow and pay Intereſt on all Exchequer Bills from and after the 25th of March aforeſaid, at the Rate of two Pence per Diem on each hundred Pounds; the ſaid Court do now hereby give Notice, that they will allow and pay Intereſt on all the ſaid Bills from and after the 24th Inſtant, at the Rate of one Penny per Diem only on each hundred Pounds.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company do hereby give Notice, that all ſuch of the Company's Bonds as fall due on the 25th Inſtant, will be continued for one Year longer at 5 l. per Cent. per Ann. to all ſuch Perſons as ſhall not on or before the 20th Inſtant make their Demands of the ſame of the Company's Caſhier; and that the Bonds which ſhall be ſo demanded will be paid accordingly. They further give Notice, that in order to make out the Dividend Warrants for the half Year's Annuity due at Midſummer next, the Transfer Books of the ſaid Company will be ſhut on Tueſday the 23d Inſtant, and opened on Thurſday the 20th of Auguſt next, and further Notice will be given when the ſaid Warrants will be delivered out.
